The most common reason a lock-out occurs is because of multiple user IDs.

Iowa has a smaller population, but there may be more than one John Doe, or even more than one of you out there. This results in some confusion.

The best solution is to Click on Forgot ID in the upper right-hand corner.

Enter your email address and follow the prompts to access your account.

Questions and Answers:

This is a good time to review some important points we have talked about so far.

On the IDPH website, where does the PORTAL link take us?

What is your ID or username for this website?

Who makes your password for this website?

We can find a person's license number and details using _____.

You will get locked out of your profile after _____ failed attempts.

If your password will not work, click on _____, and follow the prompts on your email. This is often needed, as there are more people with the same name in the system.

How to access and use the Training Vault

The Training Vault is a website that operates independently of the IDPH AMANDA website. It is maintained by the Mechanical Contractors Association. Because of this, these two websites DO NOT ALWAYS AGREE and some faults may exist at times.

Always refer to the AMANDA website as the final authority.

If you have any questions, concerns, access issues or information related to the Training Vault website, Click on the Contact the Administrator button on the home screen.

You may contact the Training Center for additional help to resolve an issue or if are unable to access the Training Vault at: 319-362-9258

On your browser, type in:

training vault

Click on the top search results.

Should be listed for the MCAI.

Remember, you WILL need to have your COOKIES ENABLED in order for this website to function.

It also works best in Google Chrome, as does the AMANDA website.
